The s	staff expected Intelligence Community Staff participation. We oned that was our contact and that Jim Glerum had but said that the Intelligence
Commo	nity Staff was not involved in the analysis.
speci board	taff members said they preferred increased pay targeted at fic groups of our employees rather than applied across the Jim Glerum went through the other options we had considered the difficulty of their implementation.
3. I ask accéptable:	ed if the staff thought the following procedures would be
~
in mi prese	d-summer (about 60 days after completion of the study) we could nt the rationale for our suggested options;
Prese	nt the options suggested by the study;
Inclu organ	de the DCI's recommendation for the other Intelligence Community izations.
The staff said	they thought that might be acceptable.
Selt the discu would likely d a Community-wi	e conclusion of the meeting I was told informally that the staff ssion raised as many questions as it answered, and that they raft a letter for Chairman Boland to send to the DCI asking for de recommendation. They would expect John McMahon to address the CIA hearing on 22 March.
